Rotulus “composé de nombreuses membranes sur une longueur de plusieurs dizaines de mètres”, concerning Allaman, Aubonne, and Perroy. On the outside, various notations, including N°. 586. The individual membranes seem not to be numbered, but there is a modern numbering in pencil, not respecting the seams between membranes, in effect, a “view” number, which we give below. There is some damage and the ink is somewhat faded, but the script is generally clear. Some of these transactions cite or quote previous documents and dates, especially concerning how the properties were transferred from previous tenants.
